

Ehab Mustapha

[Actor, Filmmaker]

Ehab was graduated from the faculty of arts in 2005, Alexandria University in Egypt. His profession is acting and directing for stage, he has collaborated with a big number of independent theatrical groups from Alexandria and Cairo as an actor, performer and a dancer. In the mean while he was attracted by the camera so he started his own video installation works which later on some were used in some independent projects and performances. Ehab have directed a couple of performances.

Few years later he started his experience in filmmaking in 2008 he had directed a big number of production for corporate films and TV ads. For some brand names such as; Ferrari and Rotana Music Inc. his own filmmaking career started in 2010 by co-writing and directing a film 'Off sight' and by making that film he has established his own production brand 'Jester for arts©' which is used as initiative for producing and co-producing of short films.

Fiction films:

- "Off sight" short/20 mins. B&W (work in progress)
- "Ordinary things: Looking for Farfouch" short/ 7 mins. Colored 2011
- "For Sale" short/ 6 mins. Colored 2012
- "Rehearsal" Short/ 8 mins. Colored 2013
- "Everyday similar time" Short/ 7 mins. Colored 2013
- "To be locked in the isthmus" short/ 5 mins. colored/B&W 2014

Documentary films:

- "Angry Friday" short/ 10 mins. Colored 2011
- "End of world" Short/ 18 mins. Colored 2013

For More information please visit:

www.ehab-mustapha.weebly.com